

01 / A TIMELESS LANDOUR RETREAT

A little history. A slower rhythm.

Discover the pleasure of unhurried days at The Charming Cottage, a heritage retreat in Landour where old-world character invites you to settle in and stay awhile. Among deodar trees, overlooking the Dehradun valley, this 180-year-old home offers a memorable setting for time together.

Start your morning with a quiet moment on the deck, lose yourself in a book from the library, or head out towards Char Dukan and Lal Tibba. Return for leisurely meals, conversations without a clock, and evenings that feel wonderfully removed from everyday routines. Whether you arrive for a romantic escape or a small family holiday, the cottage invites you to make room for life's simpler pleasures.

02 / REST & RECONNECT

Rooms for restful nights

The cottage's bedrooms invite restful nights and mornings that begin at your own pace. Retire after a day of shared adventures, enjoy a few quiet moments before joining your companions, and make these personal spaces part of the holiday's easy rhythm.

Bedroom 1

A welcoming place to retreat after exploring Landour. Ground-floor king bedroom for two, with an extra floor mattress for one additional guest. Ensuite bathroom, heater and Wi-Fi.

Bedroom 2

An inviting base for days spent wandering and discovering local cafes. Ground-floor king bedroom for two, with a heater, Wi-Fi and access to a shared bathroom.

Bathroom comforts

Shower cubicles, geysers, towels and toiletries. Bedroom 2 does not have an ensuite bathroom.

Bedroom photography illustrates the cottage's character; the image is not assigned to a specific room. Confirm room allocation and any mobility needs before arrival.

03 / LIFE AT THE COTTAGE

Make time for the little things

Make time for togetherness in the cottage's living area. Let conversation wander, revisit the day's discoveries, or simply enjoy an evening in each other's company. This is a space for those small, unscheduled moments that often become a holiday's favourite memories.

Give yourself permission to spend an afternoon indoors. Choose a book, pause between outings, or enjoy the simple comfort of spending time together without an itinerary.

Indoor comforts

Living area, library, Wi-Fi and inverter backup. Heaters are listed in both bedrooms.

At your table

Home-cooked vegetarian and non-vegetarian meals can be arranged at additional cost. Read the dining menu for the published selections and charging model.

Step outside

Enjoy the scenic deck, deodar surroundings and valley outlook. Parking is available; bonfire arrangements require advance confirmation and an additional charge.

04 / LANDOUR & MUSSOORIE

Let the hills set the pace

Landour offers a gentler way to experience the hills. Stroll towards Char Dukan for tea and pancakes, explore heritage lanes, or visit Lal Tibba for mountain scenery. Pause at local bakehouses, browse Landour Market, and venture into Mussoorie for a lively afternoon along Mall Road.

Back at the cottage, settle down with a book or watch the lights of Dehradun shimmer across the valley - a lovely ending to a day of discovery.

By road

Approach through Dehradun and Mussoorie. From Picture Palace, head towards Landour Market and Char Dukan. Doma's Cafe and Woodstock School's security check-post are useful landmarks. Coordinate the final approach with the property team.

By train / by air

Dehradun Railway Station is the nearest major railhead; Jolly Grant Airport is the nearest airport. Pre-book an onward taxi to Landour.

Exploring locally

Wear comfortable shoes for the sloping lanes. Arrange a local taxi for longer outings or if uphill walks are unsuitable.
